Dear Students,

We are excited to welcome you to Bharati College! To help you transition smoothly into your first year, college is organizing departmental orientation on August 29, 2024, at 11:00 AM. During the orientation, you will meet your department's teacher-in-charge and faculty members. They will discuss the timetable and other important details for your first year. Please find the attached details of the rooms allocated to each department. We look forward to seeing you there!
