

PROUD MOMENT

Our student Anuska Kalita, comes from the culturally rich state of Assam, India. Currently based in Delhi for the past two years, she's pursuing her passion for acting while studying English Literature (2nd year) from Bharati College, University of Delhi.

Acting has always been close to her heart, and being in Delhi has given her the platform to actively chase this dream.

She has worked in 2 commercials one for Ubon Cookware and another for Mutual Funds, the latter of which is yet to be released.

She's committed to growing as an artist and look forward to exploring more opportunities in the world of performance. Hopefully, you'll be seeing more of her work very soon!
