The academic support cell of Bharati College has this unique feature was that instead of traditional pedagogy, the model of Peer Group teaching was followed. Students from B. A. (P) and B. Sc. (H) Mathematics conducted classes for students from different streams who needed guidance. A list of important topics for competitive exams was drawn up and the students were taught the tricks of doing fast calculations. The students were also suggested some short cut methods for solving complex mathematical problems. Many students enrolled for the course. It was mutually beneficial for the 'teachers' as well as the learners.

Under the able guidance of Dr. Saloni Gupta, NCWEB Centre has reached this height. Around 1100 students benefitted from 42 faculty members. The Bharati Pariwar has been working unitedly and steadfastly towards transforming the lives of the students that enter their portal whether they belong to SOL, NCWEB or regular system. Our endeavor is to be of use to the community and the society at large and towards this end we seek the guidance and blessings of all gathered here today.

At the Bharati College Centre, through its Personal Contact Programme of School of Open Learning (SOL PCP) approximately 800+ students of B. Com. Had the advantage of face to face learning with the help of 34 faculty members. Separate classes were run for Hindi and English medium students. The centre is efficiently run by AO Mr. P K Babbar, SO Accounts Mr. Parmanand and Mr. Charanjeet Singh.

The Non-teaching staff too attended Faculty Development Programmes and various other programmes run by CPDHE and other Colleges. Administrative Officer Mr. Pawan Babbar attended two short programs. Ms. Tanveer Dureja, Assistant and Ms. Preeti Vats, Semi-Professional Assistant (SPA) from the library participated in a two days Training Programme where as Mr. Parmanand Singh, Administrative Officer, Mr. Vimlesh Kumar Jha, Junior Assistant and Mrs. Vineeta Singh, junior Assistant attended training Programme of PFMS organized by UGC.
