

The Academic Support Cell has been created to provide academic assistance to students beyond classroom teaching. Students from different streams are provided guidance for cracking competitive exams which require proficiency in mathematical skills. The unique feature of these coaching sessions is that the method of peer group teaching is followed. Our students of BA(h) Maths teach students of other streams. These classes are free of cost and are a great learning experience both for the 'teacher' and the taught.