

NSS Report 2016-2017

The National Service Scheme was launched in 1969 to bring into action Gandhiji's vision of service to the community by channelizing the energy and capabilities of students. It seeks to build student and teacher interaction through various activities and events. The motto of NSS 'Not Me But You' has been the practice amongst the students of Bharati

College. In the year 2016-2017 the students organized into volunteer groups and involved themselves in identifying and solving the problems faced by the community thereby developing a sense of social and civic responsibility.

The volunteers contributed their efforts to a clean India by undertaking the responsibility of keeping the college clean. To beat the fear of malaria and dengue during monsoon fumigation was planned and executed in the entire campus of the college with the help of MCD workers of the area. To sensitize the students on the ill effects of Drug Addiction, the issue was made the theme of deliberation for NSS Day 2016. The celebration began with a sapling plantation by the volunteers and principal of the college. An awareness rally of about 100 volunteers, and activities like slogan writing competition and a Nukkad Natak conveyed the message 'Say No to Drugs'. The message of citizens responsibility to keep alive the democratic ethos was conveyed to the students by organizing Graffiti competition on the theme 'Matdata' on 6th and 20th October 2016. Enthusiastic Participants with figures and slogans painted the boundary wall of the college, on the importance of the right to vote.

Voter Awareness camp was held with the help of Election Office Janak Puri to enable students and staff of the college to enroll in the Indian Electoral roll. Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) college campus ambassadors have been appointed to sensitize young electors. They have the responsibility of helping the students to fill the prescribed form and deposit it with the election office of the area. The excitement of the students to cast their vote in the elections can be ascertained as approximately 700 students have been successfully enrolled as voters so far and took the pledge to fulfill the duty of a responsible citizen on the occasion of National Voters Day on 25th January. Students also expressed their commitment through slogans and posters.

To spread the light of joy and happiness the NSS unit reached out to an NGO 'Antardrishti' to display their perfumed candles and incense sticks made by visually challenged and the Tihar Jail inmates. The students also exhibited their skills in making decorative items. These artefacts were displayed in the college.

The birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhai Patel was celebrated for a week as 'Rashtriya Ekta Saptah' from 31st October to 6th November 2016 marked by pledge of unity, integrity, security and service to the nation. Also, unity run, slogan writing, essay writing competitions and street plays were organized to spread the message of love and affection amongst fellow beings. Documentary films on Sardar Patel were screened in the seminar hall of the college. To reinforce the harmful effects of tobacco, display boards with captions- 'Tobacco free campus' have been put up in the premises.

The launch of Vittiya Saksharata Abhiyan (VISAKA) - a campaign for promoting a digital economy through youth volunteers by the Ministry of Human Resource Development many volunteers attended a workshop organized with the help of Punjab National Bank executives to apprise students of cashless mode of making payments. The aim of the workshop was to train the volunteers who would explain the benefits and advise people on using those modes in an effort to enable them to convert to digital payment mode. Volunteers covered the areas close to their residence to convince people or helping them to use such modes.

At the 21st National Youth Festival 2017 organized by Ministry of Youth & Sports, Government of India and Sports, & Youth Affairs Department, Haryana Govt., at Maharishi Dayanand University in Haryana's Rohtak District, from 12th to 16th January 2017 with the objective of 'Digital Young India', the college was represented by Renu Lata of B.Com final year.

A training programme on Emergency Response Preparedness was conducted by Smartpro Foundation on 31st January 2017 to develop capacity to meet emergencies and natural disasters. Society for Promotion of Youth and Masses (SPYM) organized 2nd National Youth Forum on Drug Use Prevention in Chanakya Puri New Delhi, our two volunteers attended the talk delivered by a speaker from AIIMS on the problems related to alcohol and drugs consumption.

The celebration of women empowerment began with a poster making competition on Beti Bachao Beti Padhao organized by Delhi Government. Participants from the college drew their thought on canvas to draw attention on the hitherto marginalized section of the society. Our volunteers also participated in 'Walk for Life' programme to stride against Cancer on 05th

February 2017 at Rajpath, India Gate, New Delhi and volunteered in Prevention of Tuberculosis event held on 18February 2017, conducted by Delhi TB Association at Lodi Road .

The volunteers have also been helping visually challenged students of various schools during their CBSE board exams to help them write exams by volunteering their services as writers. An interactive talk was held in the college with Mr. Ajit Singh to motivate students to volunteer towards the service of mankind and the all-round development of personality. The year round activities have been coordinated by active voluntary service of Preeti Sharma of B.com final year student. Also, the valuable inputs and suggestions given by the committee members have been vital to plan and execute the activities. The NSS unit of the college has truly inculcated the spirit of service amongst the teachers and students through community interaction and will be further strengthened in the coming years.

Thank You.

Anuranjita Wadhwa
NSS Programme Officer
Assistant Professor
Bharati College
New Delhi.