Hestia, the Departmental Society of Sociology Department has always been active in conducting various talk sessions, lectures and workshops for their students to get the best out of them. Through courses on Indian society, political, economic, religion, kinship and family, gender and social stratification they have a fine grasp of social structures, processes, institutions, cultural diversities and dynamics of social change. They are trained to spot social patterns and trends and seek causation at the level of social and cultural collectives to explain the observed social regularities. They are averse to attaching undue causal weight to individual subjective understandings and are resistant to unfounded ethnocentric assumptions. They become well equipped to mobilize their sociological knowledge and generic skills for a variety of purposes apart from academic pursuit of the discipline. Sociology students are equipped to grasp vast quantities of diversely textured complex material and synthesize it into coherent and cogent arguments backed by evidence. The lecture was an insightful event and most of the students asked their queries or added comments to what the speaker had shared with everyone.

Yoga Sessions by NSS

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS),

OF BHARATI COLLEGE,

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

YOGA SESSIONS

“Yoga is Self-realization, to overcome all kinds of sufferings leading to 'the state of liberation' (Moksha) or 'freedom' (Kaivalya). Living with freedom in all walks of life, health and harmony shall be the main objectives of Yoga practice..”

OUR AIM

The ultimate aim of Yoga is to experience the Truth, by realizing the true nature of our ‘Self’ and the Universe. Then one can become free from the chain of cause and effect (Karma) which brings us to earthly life again and again. In that highest state of yogic realization, one can regain one’s real nature – Eternal Existence, Supreme Wisdom, Absolute Bliss (Sat-Chit-Ananda).

OUR PHILOSOPHY

According to Yoga, the ‘self’ (soul) is timeless, unchanging and free of sorrows. Yoga is therefore a spiritual quest. However, along the path of yoga, the yogi also gains health, happiness, tranquility and wisdom, which are indicators of progress and an encouragement to continue the practice.

Yoga is a mirror to look at ourselves from within-B K S Iyengar.

A. Workshop on Gender Sensitization

The Equal opportunity Cell, Bharati College organised a Gender Sensitization Workshop on 10th February, 2023. The Speakers of the session were Prof. Rekha Sapra, Principal, Bharati College and Dr. Punita Gupta, Associate professor, Aditi Mahavidyalaya.

Prof. Sapra began her talk by focusing on the term “Gender Sensitization”. She talked about the difference between the term “gender” and “sex” and emphasized on the idea of “awareness” about the gender-based barriers that society imposes on women. The speaker pointed out that gender has always been a constructed subject by the society at large and it needs deconstructing.

The gender roles are stereotypical representations which has been set ever since the inception of the society and it continues to act as a deterrent to the progress of society. She emphasizes on the need to be “aware” as change has to be taken into consideration.

The second speaker i.e. Dr. Punita Gupta took the discussion of “Gender-sensitization” to another level wherein she emphasized on the realm of psychology as the defining factor of one’s gender identification. She posited that “Gender” has to do with how we think, how we feel and what we believe we can or cannot do because of socially defined concepts of masculinity and femininity. She mentions that gender relates to positioned women’s relationship to each other and that it is nothing but a “social fabrication” on the biology of human beings.

She touched on the main idea that even before we go into the discussion of “gender sensitization” we have to actually understand the concept of what is “Gender issue” exactly? She points out that in order to analyse the issues on gender, one has to “see what our eyes have been trained not to see”. We practice what we have been stereotypically been told to see.

She points out that “Empowerment” is within us and it is not something that one will be given. One of the stepping stones to empowerment is ---understanding that one is allowed to exercise one’s choices and can freely do so in one’s own terms.

Disha is great she always ask us about our opinion if we are enjoying the classes or not and which way she should teach and what other things she should include so that we could better understand whatever she is trying to teach and I think according to me she teaches perfectly as she always ask us about our opinion as if we are enjoying or not or this is the correct way the way she is teaching or she should teach in some other way to make the classes more fun. I think she did her job perfectly, there is not much to be corrected other things she will do by herself and everything is great I love the way she teach and I am very happy with her teaching style and I really enjoy her classes.

The EOC / Enabling Committee of our College in collaboration with Youth4Jobs foundation organized 'Career guidance for Persons with Disability' on 17th February 2023.

The corporates believe in the abilities of persons with disabilities and they are committed to mainstreaming them through several activities such as career guidance, soft skills training, internships, and full-time employment for the deserving individual. However, youth with disabilities are not aware of the market developments, lack skills, and are not prepared for campus interviews thus making them unemployable.

So, in order to address the above issue Bharati College partnered with Youth4Jobs foundation to open up avenues for Students with Disability at the college level. The participated companies include Capgemini, Infosys BPM, Amazon, Cognizant, Barclays, HSBC. The corporate companies talked about their inclusion processes, jobs, and career progression in their organizations.

ASIAN ASSOCIATION FOR LANGUAGE ASSESSMENT, AALA

Five students from the department, two graduates and three third-year students - Aria Susanth, Gauri Shukla, Divyanshi Dash, Ekta Singh and Ananya Dutta - were fortunate enough to attend the AALA CONFERENCE 2022, held in Chennai, India for the very first time and present their poster and research on the topic: "Exploring Assessment Tools for an Alternate Classroom in the New Normal at Bharati College, University of Delhi."

In an initiative started by the Ex-Principal of Bharati College, Dr. Mukti Sanyal, the five students volunteered as mentors to guide and help the other students (mentees). This led them to work on language assessment directly and prepare their poster.

The AALA (Asian Association for Language Assessment) Conference was a 3-day program. The conference started on 26th October 2022 with workshops. There were 4 workshops arranged for the attendees to choose from. The workshops were as follows. Ethical dilemmas in modern language assessment by Antony Kunnan, Unravelling teacher beliefs in assessment dilemmas by Jayakaran Mukundan, and Using a Learning-Oriented Assessment approach to the development of language assessments based on scenarios by James Purpura. The attendees from Bharati College attended the workshops led by Purpura and Mukundan.

The second day, 27th October 2022, consisted of the plenary speech, panel discussion and paper presentations. On the third and the last day, 28th October 2022, continued with the paper presentations and then proceeded for the poster presentations. The conference, with special mentions of the sponsors from London, namely duolingo English Test (The diamond sponsor), British Council, TOEFL (Gold sponsors), and TRINITY college London, Language Testing in Asia (Silver sponsors), witnessed the closure of the ceremony in the evening of the last day.

The presenters from Bharati College received great feedback from the other professors who were present at the conference. Amidst researchers from all across Asia, the experience was extremely unique and special. They got the opportunity to listen to great academicians like Dr. Anthony Kunnan, Dr. James E. Purpura, Dr. Jayakaran Mukundan and Rukmini Bannerji, the founder of Pratham. The team expressed appreciation for the other presentations, cherishing the moments which were to be sought for a lifetime.

They mesmerized the audience presenting an impactful Nukkad Natak ‘Dharati Ki Pukaar’ which depicted the ‘human action and reactions’ which have direct consequence on mother Earth and human health. This moved the audience. The students prepared 75 posters on ‘Mission LiFE’ on 75 life Actions on seven themes to remind us of our responsibility, to protect the environment and how to become Pro Planet People (P3). The programme was convened by Dr Roopa Johri , Teacher in Charge of Department of Environmental Studies who shared a vote of thanks, her deep feelings towards mother Earth and requested everyone to be a sensible citizen.

The mobilisation programme was a huge success and it helped raise awareness among the students, staff and teachers regarding how to be environmentally conscious and to change our lifestyle from mindless and destructive consumerism to mindful and deliberate utilization of resources for Environment. We are grateful to our Chairman Prof. Ritu Sapra and Principal Prof. Saloni Gupta for facilitating the public awareness programme.

The concept of LiFE, i.e. Lifestyle for Environment was introduced by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Sri Narendra Modi at the World Leaders' Summit in Glasgow (at UNFCCC COP26, 2021), when he gave a clarion call to rekindle a global pursuit to adopt sustainable lifestyle and practices for effective climate action. This year, the Ministry of Education, Government of India envisages to celebrate the World Environment Day 2023 with a thrust on the Mission LiFE and requested all HEIs to undertake activities and upload the events on the Meri LiFE portal (merilife.org) of the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change. Mass mobilization across the country on LiFE is being organized in the run-up to the celebrations. The aim of the campaign was to i) make aware the participants on Mission LiFE, ii) synchronize young minds with LiFE themes, and iii) disseminate knowledge on environmentally friendly habits and to practice the eco friendly lifestyle.
