Dear Colleague,

Greetings from Delhi School of Journalism (DSJ) - University of Delhi...

We are glad to inform you that Delhi School of Journalism is gearing up to admit students to the second batch of Five Year Integrated Program in Journalism.

Students are admitted to the course through a national level online entrance examination. The minimum eligibility is 12th class pass with 50% aggregate. The examination intends to test the candidate's proficiency in Logical Reasoning, Mental Ability, Language Competencies, and General Awareness including elementary understanding of regular happenings in Polity, Economy and Society.

The DSJ solicits your valuable expertise and support in materializing a reasonably good selection procedure and requests you to formulate 40 questions on General Knowledge and Current Affairs. The questions must be newly formulated.

The work is strictly confidential in nature.

The mode of testing is multiple choice questions (MCQs) with four options. For the question numbers, you are advised to use the Arabic Numerals (1,2,3...) and for Options, Capital Alphabets – A, B, C, D.

The questions have to be submitted by 15 May 2018 in soft copy (CD/DVD) in a sealed cover in the DSJ office (G4/G2 – University Sports Complex, Entry from Gate No. 2, North Campus) before 4:00 pm.

An honorarium for making the questions, as per the university rules will be paid, after the completion of the examination.

For further clarifications if required, you may revert back to this e-mail, or contact @ 9811098070 (Dr. Mansvini M. Yogi, OSD & Nodal Officer).

Anticipating a positive response,

With Kind Regards

Prof. J.P. Dubey
Honorary Director
