Type: Seminar

Objective of programme:

• To provide insights about various career options available to students.

• To familarizze the students to with the placement process.

Summary of the event:

Session commenced with welcome address of the speaker. In the first half of the session, Mr Kunal interacted with the students and tried to introduced them with various career options. He also discussed various challenges which students faced once they are graduate. He pointed out the change in job market for a graduate now a days and emphasized on pursuing internship and other courses to add on to their knowledge and skillset. He also cautioned the students that doing an internship isn't sufficient and motivated the students to undertake the internship that provide real job environments' exposure. In the second half of the session Mr. Gopal discussed various issues like importance of finding the goal in life and have clear vision, presentation of self in CV and placement process. He narrated the students many instances where a student was not good on paper but was stillable to secure best job in campus. He also gave students three E rule (Explore, Evaluate and Evolve). He asked students to get themselves exposed to new activities and events to find the goals. He further added to keep working for the goal and evaluate all the voids and necessity to achieve the goals and keep improving and getting better. He informed students that confidence, good communication skill and aptitude are the must for securing dream jobs. Before taking up the queries of the students he asked students to practice application of knowledge acquired. During the session students were found very interactive and participative. Session was ended with vote of thanks.

Sjain.
