Summary of the event:

With the welcome and brief introduction of the speaker, session was commenced. Our key note speaker opened the discussion with participants by asking “ how many of you would like to do give bad interview?”. On receiving pindrop silence, he confirmed with the audience that everyone wants to give a good interview so that we can ensure our selection for the job we aspired. In order to projected the personal interviews scenario, he demonstrated a small role play with one of the student volunteer. After the role play he started pointing out the concern of the interviewer and instructed the students to what can be done differntly in role play, so that our aspirant will get selected. He emphasized that to do well in an interview students must have practical knowledge and commnication skills to presnt that knowledge. He also encouraged the students to prepare for one minute long answer for quuestions like , introduce yourself, goals after five years, reason one should hier you etc. our speaker also instructed the students to overcome the fear of interview one can practice with their batchmates and listen videos available on social media. Before taking up the queries from participants, he promoted everyone to use their mobile and devices to update their knowledge on regular basis. The session was ended with vote of thanks.
