Event: MANTHAN PERFORMANCE

The event was organised on February 10th, 2020

50 students participated in this event.

Description: Ananda* believes in giving students a reason to smile and feel positive. Amidst the hectic schedule of classes, assignments and chaos of life, something that makes you pause and cheer, that is Ananda. IQAC Ananda collaborated with the drama society of the college, Manthan to present a nukkad natak on gender inequality. The topic chosen for the nukkad natak was gender inequality, a topic that we are all very well versed with. The students were able to relate to the performance and the performers did their best to strike a chord in the hearts of their audience. The performance took place in the central lawn and attracted a huge audience.

The event was extremely well received and students expressed how peaceful and happy they felt after the performance. The feedback was overwhelming.
