

Self and Identity in the Indian Perspective

The Department of Psychology, Bharati College was graced by the presence of Dr. Girishwar Misra, Professor, Delhi University on 26th March, 2019 for a seminar. He is a renowned lecturer, Vice Chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi Antarrashtriya Hindi Vishwavidyalaya and the chief editor of the fifth ICSSR Survey of Psychology. In the official closing ceremony, he elucidated on- “Self and Identity in the Indian Perspective” to familiarize the students with the idea of self and how it is affected by culture, with special emphasis on the Indian perspective to understand self. The event was attended by 90 students. The Department of Psychology is grateful to have had the opportunity to meet a visionary such as Dr. Misra.

