5. Notification of other Committees:

The Principal outlined the guidelines for the formation of committees as follows:

- The existing committees will function until 31st July and are required to submit their final reports by then. The newly constituted committees will be operative from 1st August.
- Any member who has served for one term may continue for a second term. However, those who have completed two terms will be rotated out, except ex-officio members.
- A new member replacing an outgoing one must be someone who has never previously served on that particular committee.
- Committees will be formed as per the needs of the college, and each individual may be allotted only one preference. Every staff member will get an opportunity to serve on committees through a rotational system.
- Those interested in working on two committees may additionally volunteer for Admission, Time-Table, Discipline, or Monitoring Committees, which are open to all.

The name of the “Building & Building Maintenance Committee” has been changed to the “Building Maintenance Committee”. During the formation of the committee, Prof. Harikishni asked that if she chooses to work as a member, she would carry out her responsibilities with honesty. Dr. Nishtha Bhushan, an existing committee member, objected, stating that the allegation against other members not working honestly was unacceptable.

The name of the Transgender Cell (IRIS) has been officially changed to the Gender Equality Cell.

The formation of a Research and Development Cell (in place of Research Committee) as per the UGC- guidelines was also notified.

6. Any Other Matter:

The Principal informed that the Academic Committee had recommended the discontinuation of the following B.A. program combinations: B.A. (Punjabi +Economics) and B.A. (History + O.M.S.P.). However, this recommendation has not been implemented for admissions in the academic year 2025-26. As a result, the seat matrix remains unchanged for the current year and has been approved for the next year as well.

The meeting was concluded with a vote of thanks.
