Distinguished Alumni of

B.A. (Hons.) Sociology, Bharati College | M.Sc. Criminal Justice and Policy,
London School of Economics (2024–25)

“My years at Bharati College were truly transformative. The Department of Sociology provided a vibrant academic space that encouraged both intellectual curiosity and personal growth. The faculty’s innovative teaching pedagogy nurtured my potential for critical reading, research, and writing. Balancing academics with extra-curricular activities taught me the value of holistic learning, which continues to guide my journey at the London School of Economics and beyond.”
